

Fountain City Festival's
The Addams Family Audition Packet

Thank you for your interest in Fountain City Festival's production of THE ADDAMS FAMILY. Fountain City Festival prides itself on providing professional quality entertainment in northwest Ohio. Our production team is dedicated to upholding this standard, along with making the process enjoyable for all involved.

This audition packet will ask for some information about yourself and will contain material you will need for audition including audition monologues, vocal excerpts and choreography. We request that you review and fill out the entire packet prior to auditioning. Please be as thorough in your answers as you can. While Fountain City Festival does not require a resume and headshot, if you wish to bring one to auditions, you may. Thank you again for your interest in this year's production. We hope to have you as a member of the family.

IMPORTANT

1. By auditioning and accepting a role in THE ADDAMS FAMILY, you agree to abide by the regulations and policies of the Fountain City Festival and its Board of Trustees. You further agree to abide by any production policies instituted by the director, musical director, and choreographer (rehearsal times, proper clothing and footwear for dance, etc.) Any violation may result in your removal from the cast and production.

2. A production of this size requires a great commitment of your time. You should be aware that you may need to forgo or reschedule vacations, sporting events, club activities to meet the needs of the production. You may be required to put in extra time at the behest of the director, musical director, etc. including, but not limited to, arriving early to rehearsal, staying after rehearsal, or extra rehearsal periods. The cast may be asked to participate in promotional activity, such as the Jubilee Parade.

3. For your safety and well-being, any physical condition or allergy that could prevent you from participating in certain theater related activities (wearing makeup, dancing, fog machine, strobe lights, etc.) should be made aware to the producer and director. We respect our performer's privacy, and will hold such information in the highest confidence.

4. Due to the cost, care and maintenance required for all costumes. All cast members will be required to pay a $20 costume fee. This fee is must be given to the Director by the first week of rehearsal.

By signing this document, you confirm that all information provided is true and accurate to the best of your knowledge. You also acknowledge that you have read and understand all rules and requirements stated above.
